Boat Floats Float On Otsego Lake

Cooperstown's very own cowboys Kian Grady and Landon Collins ride on the front of their family's pontoon boat, decorated to look like a frontier wagon. Their boat was one of several that was decorated for the fifth annual Independence Day Boat Parade, put on by the Otsego Lake Association. The boats paraded down the west side of the lake from Three Mile Point to the southern end of the lake, in front of Cooperstown's Lakefront Park, where prizes were awarded to each boat.
